OER Evaluation

Content Criteria Rubric

Source Name: Video: What is a reliable source?

	Superior	Acceptable	Poor	Notes
Source: Content is from a reputable source (e.g., scholarly, highly researched peer-reviewed, leaders in the field) and is known to be authentic.		✓		From a reliable source on research and education. Oh, the irony if it wasn't!
Intent: Content is intended to inform and is not satire, propaganda, or other misleading influence.		✓
Bias: Content is free from implicit/explicit bias and prioritizes primary sources.		✓
Time: Content is current or falls within the desired time frame considered relevant/ accurate to the subject.		✓
Licensing: Falls within the scope of the user's needs.		✓
Relevancy: Content is insightful and/or useful for the intended audience and does not stray from the intended focus.		✓		Content is straightforward and easy to understand for many age groups.
Ease of Use: Content is appropriate to the intended audience in format and reading comprehension or may be easily and legally differentiated to meet those standards.		✓		Easily understood and captions are provided.